FROM SCHOOL TO HIGHER EDUCATION

Exploring how Australian students transition into further study

1. The transition at a glance

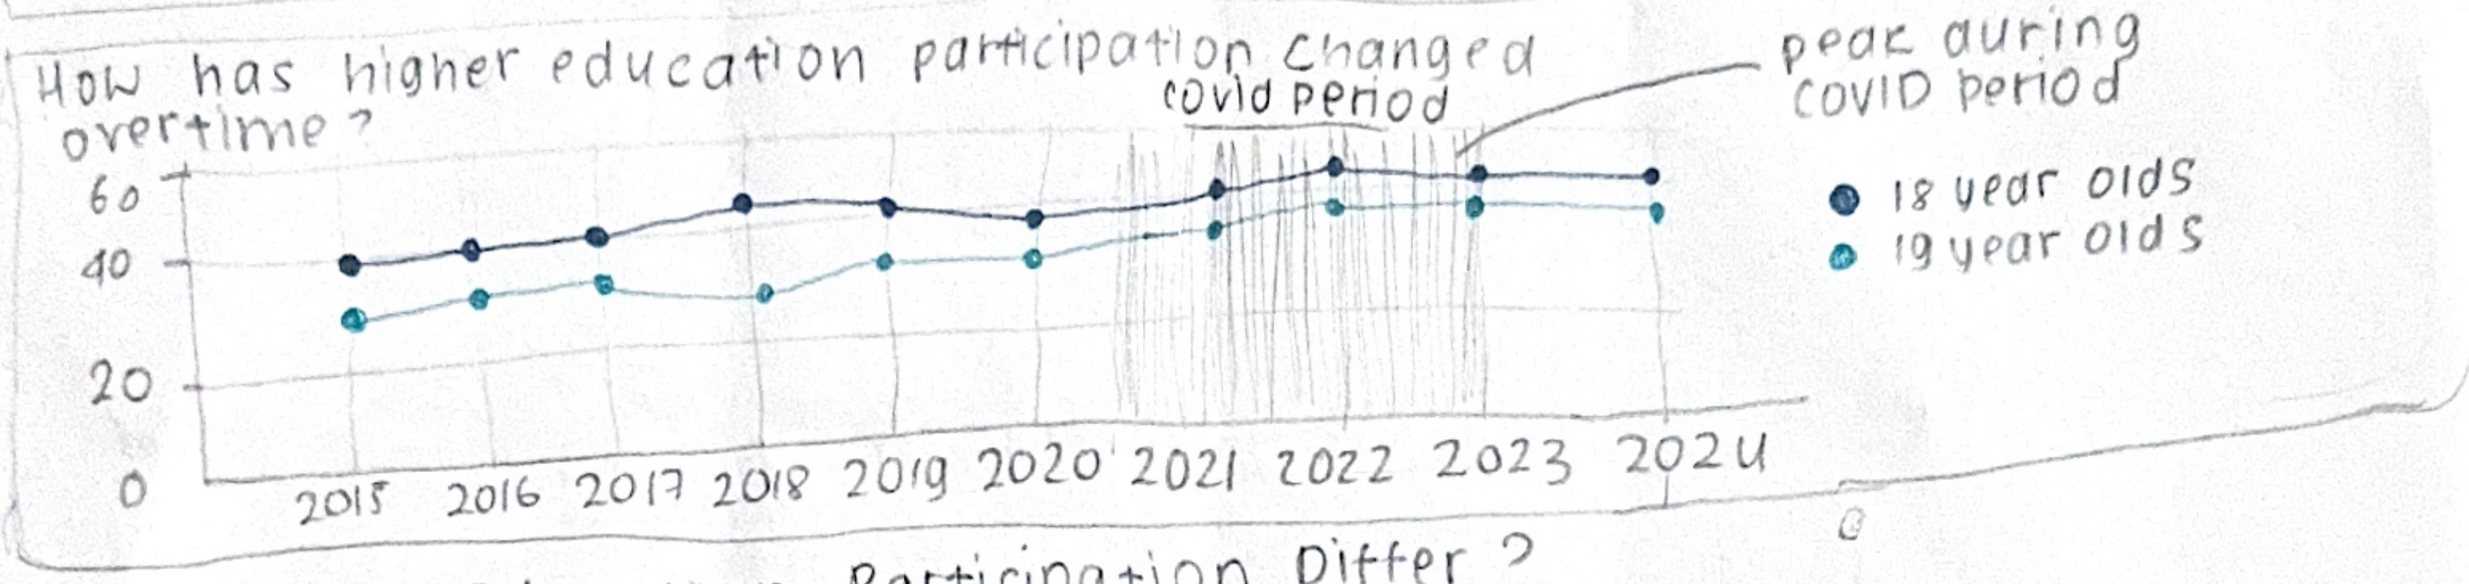

16.5% of Australians are studying in 2025

48% entered straight from high school

40.2% 19 year olds participated in higher education

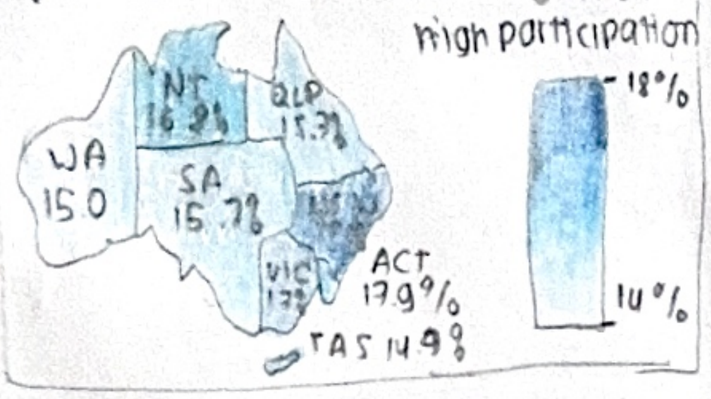

91.4% of 20-24 year olds attained year-12 and above

How has higher education participation changed overtime?

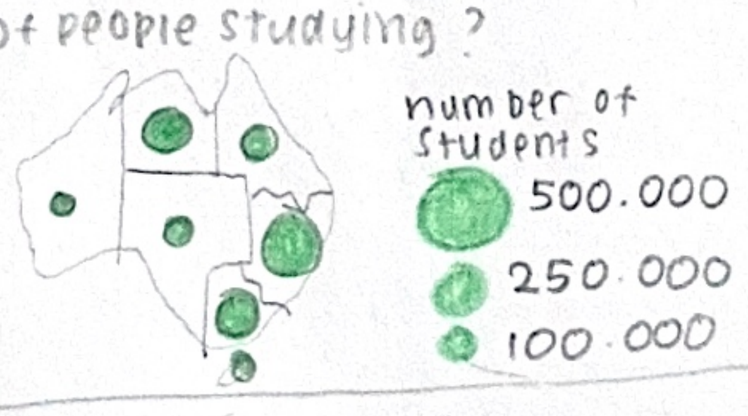

2. Where Does Education Participation Differ?

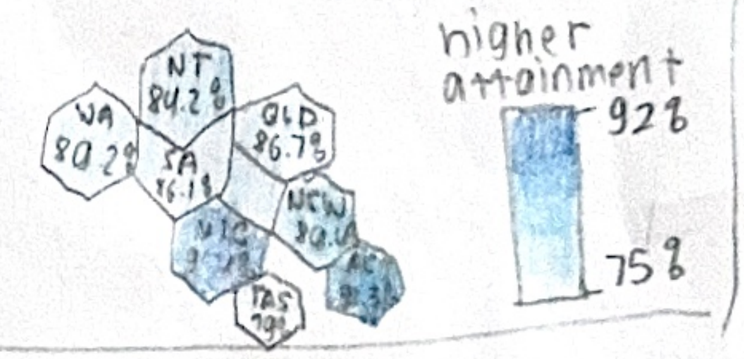

Where is education participation the highest?

Where are the largest numbers of people studying?

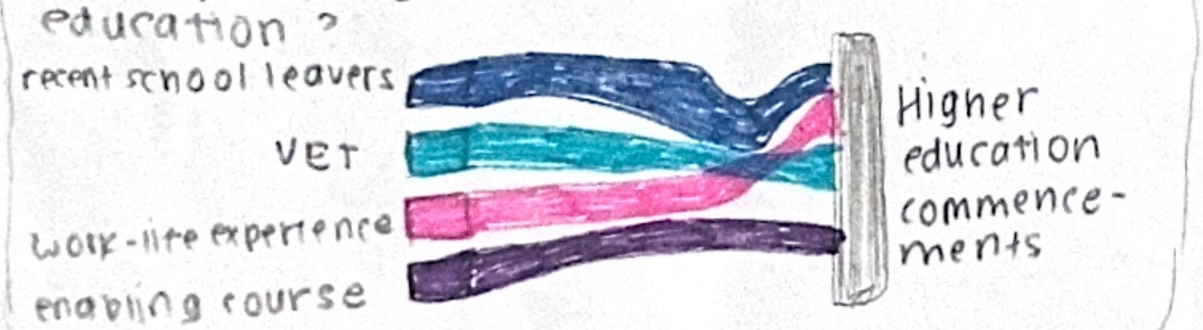

How does young adult education attainment vary?

3. Different Pathways into Higher Education

What pathways lead students into higher education?

Does entry pathway change with age?

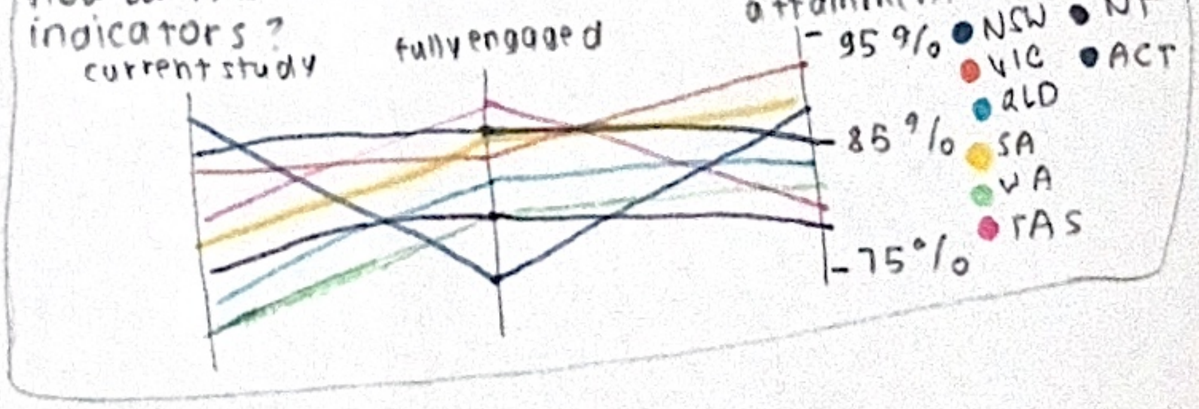

4. Who takes different Educational Journeys?

At what age do students enter high education?

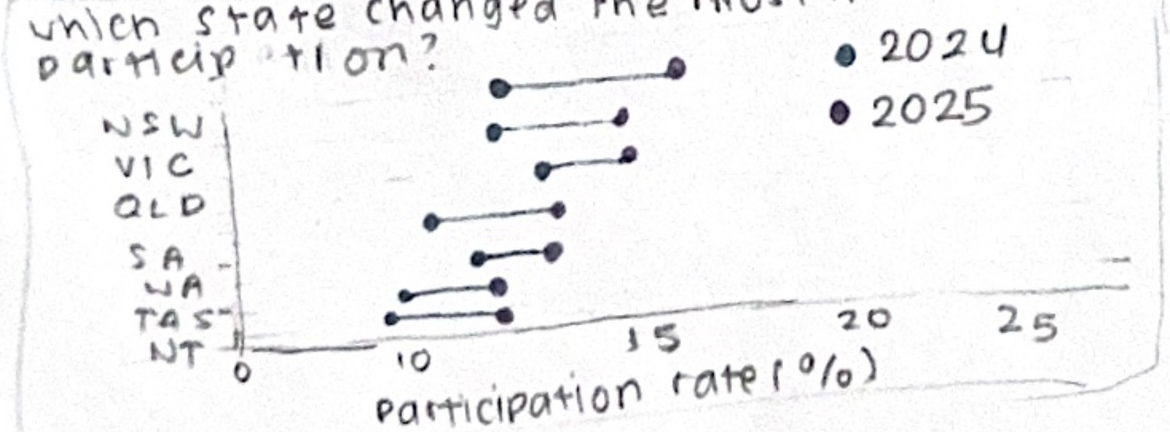

How do Australian states differ across education indicators?

5. Changing Educational Participation across Australia

Which state changed the most in education participation?

How does study participation change across each state?

